AS it is well known to every Gentleman, that the useful Undertaking of this large Maritime County will be attended with a great deal of Trouble and Expence, the Undertakers humbly hope for Encouragement from the Nobility and Gentry, &c. in order to enable them to execute the Work with Expedition, in the same accurate Manner as the Actual Survey of Hartfordshire, (which is now almost engraved) by the said J. ANDREWS and A. DURY.

N. B. SUBSCRIPTIONS are taken by J. ANDREWS and M. WREN, in the Country ; and A. DURY in Duke's Court, St. Martin's Lane.

Where may be had the best Collection of Maps, Plans, and Prints, published in Europe.

the Sum of One Guinea and a Half, being the first Payment for the aforesaid Map, which we promise to deliver on Payment of One Guinea and a Half more
